

Bring your legacy systems into the 3rd millennium

- Scan and display your documents directly from your System i or Mainframe application
- Export your sub-file records to Excel
- Generate Word documents based on your application screen

Installs in minutes! It takes a few minutes to implement!

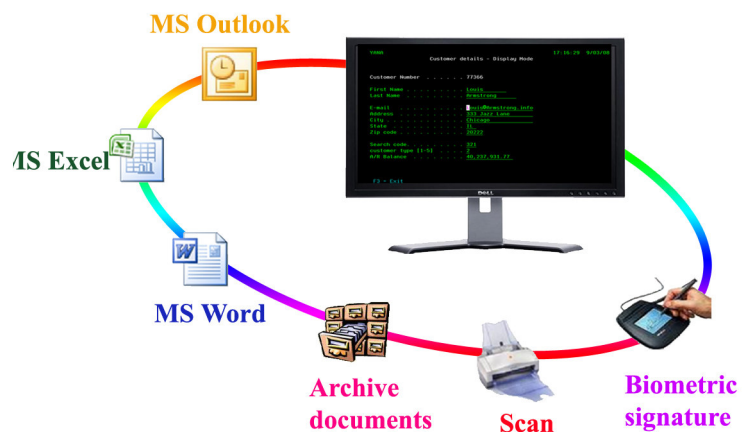

LinkIt is an integration tool that can link legacy systems such as System i or Mainframe with any PC application.

LinkIt is designed to supply a quick and easy method of integrating information based on data displayed on emulation screens.

LinkIt Abilities

- Scan and catalog documents
- Retrieve and display archived documents
- Export sub-file data into Excel
- Generate Word documents
- Integrate fully with Outlook
- Integrate any PC application

All available directly from your green screen application

Special features:

- Barcode document scanning
- Biometric signature integration

LinkIt Advantages

- LinkIt is a wizard-based tool that requires no programming or special skills.
- Implementation is quick and easy. It takes a few minutes to integrate!
- Maintenance is simple.
- No code modifications are required in the legacy system application.